Section C – Comprehension Open-Ended (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer in complete sentences the questions that follow.

All the animals on Mr Grumpy's boat were excited. They were going on a boat ride down the river. It was crowded on the boat. There were animals, both big and small squashed on the boat, the two children and Mr Grumpy. No one was really comfortable, but they all wanted to go on the ride down the river.

It was a cool and breezy day and the animals enjoyed the breeze blowing on their faces. Suddenly, the goat sneezed and the boat tipped. The goat hit into the calf nearby. The calf lost his balance and fell into the river. The goat reached out to help the calf, and he lost his balance too and fell into the river. The boat with the other animals and Mr Grumpy and the children continued along on their way, leaving the goat and the calf to get out of the river on their own.
