It was a windy Saturday morning. Adam and Bill decided to fly their kites at the big open field opposite their block of flats.

The strong wind carried their kites high up into the sky. The two boys were very excited. Suddenly, Bill lost his grip on the string of his kite.

"Oh no! My kite has flown away!" he exclaimed. His kite soon disappeared from sight and Bill burst into tears.

"Cheer up, Bill. You can fly mine. We can make a new kite together," Adam said to Bill.

"Thank you, Adam. You are such a kind friend," Bill replied with a smile.

Bill wiped his tears away and they continued playing. He felt lucky to have a friend like Adam.
