Section B – Comprehension Open (5 marks)

Read the following passage. Answer questions 11 to 13.

Once, in a small country, there lived a very wise man. The king heard about him and invited him to the palace. The king gave him some riddles and the wise man solved them easily. After that, he was taken to a large room. He was amazed when he saw a wide variety of flowers.

"Pick out a real flower among all the artificial ones!" the king challenged the wise man.

The wise man examined all the flowers carefully. They were so well made that they looked like real flowers in a garden. The flowers gave off a sweet smell too.

The wise man thought to himself, "Insects are attracted to the scent of real flowers." So, he requested that the window be opened. Within minutes, a bee flew in through the window and went to the real flower.

"That is the real flower," the wise man told the king.

The king was very impressed with the wise man. "You will be my advisor in the palace," the king said.

ad the passage below and answer Questions 13 to 15.

"Help me! Help me!" Ravi was startled and wondered who had spoken. Turning around, he spotted a huge gold pot sitting right in the middle of the rows of corn. Balancing on his toes, Ravi peered over the edge of the pot and could not believe what he saw. A dwarf stared back at him.

"Please help me," the dwarf pleaded. "Get me out of this pot and I'll grant you a wish."

Ravi was a little scared. He had never met a dwarf before. After much persuasion, he stretched out his hands, grabbed the dwarf and pulled him up and out of the pot.

"Thank you for helping me. I have been stuck for hours. What's your wish?" the dwarf asked with a smile on his face.

Ravi would really love a new bicycle like the one his best friend had. He also realised that this could be the only chance he could help his parents. They had worked very hard. Ravi was hoping things could be easier for the family during this dry season.

Finally, Ravi said to the dwarf, "I wish that it would rain so that the crops would flourish."

Climbing into his bed early that night, Ravi wondered if the dwarf would grant his wish. He looked out of the window the next morning and was thrilled to see big puddles and huge rows of corn in the field. Ravi's parents beamed with joy as they gazed at the wonderful sight during their breakfast. Elated, Ravi was grateful to the dwarf for granting his wish.

Your answers must be based on the passage.

One evening, Rocky was out walking around his neighbourhood when he spotted a mouse in a field. Rocky knew he would get into trouble if he went too far from home. Luckily, the field was just nearby. Therefore, Rocky decided to give chase to the tiny squeaky creature he had spotted earlier.

Rocky was so busy chasing the mouse that he did not hear his owner, Mrs Cai, calling him for dinner.

"Well," said Mrs Cai. "This is very strange. Rocky always comes home for dinner. Something must have happened to Rocky."

Mrs Cai put on her slippers and went in the direction of the field. She called for Rocky at the top of her lungs. Still, Rocky did not hear her. He was so busy with the chase that he had forgotten all about his dinner. In fact, he had forgotten about everything else too.

Suddenly, Mrs Cai saw something moving among the bushes in the field. She went over to see if Rocky was there. In the bushes, Rocky was just getting ready for a final pounce on the mouse when he saw Mrs Cai. Rocky knew that he had no choice but to forgo his final battle. Mrs Cai gave Rocky a stern glare and warned him not to wander off again.

Hanging his head low, Rocky purred softly. It was as if to promise Mrs Cai that he would not misbehave again.
