Section E: Comprehension (10 marks total)

Read the passage carefully.

There once lived a king, who loved to hunt. He would bring his bow and arrow into the forest to hunt for animals. The king would walk deep into the forest and when he saw an animal, he would pull back on his bow and sent an arrow flying towards the animal.

The king would laugh and walk off to find the next animal. The king came to a river where he saw a deer having a drink. He hid behind a bush, readying his arrow. The deer saw the king and it spoke, "Spare me, great king. I shall be forever grateful." The king laughed at the deer. The king wanted the deer for himself. He pulled on his bow. As the king did that, he tripped on a stone, slipped and fell into the river. The king struggled in the water and called for help. The deer ran forward and used his huge antlers to scoop the king out of the river.

"You have saved me, Deer!" exclaimed the king. "I will spare your life and I promise not to hunt for any other animals in this forest from now on." The deer bowed to the king and pranced off into the forest.

Toby was a creature that lived in Happy Woods. He loved to play with his friends, Rabbit and Chicken. Once, he played together with them. His sharp, needle-like hair pricked Rabbit's leg and it started bleeding.

Toby felt bad. He decided to stop playing with his friends so that he would not hurt them. Tears rolled down his cheeks as he thought about his ugly, useless, needle-like hair. He wished he had fur like Rabbit and feathers like Chicken.

One day, Toby watched his friends playing near the bushes. Just then, a wolf crept out slowly. Realising that his friends were in danger, he sprang at the wolf. His needle-like hair poked right into the wolf's body. The wolf cried out in pain and scurried off.

"Thank you for saving our lives!" said his friends gratefully. Toby was glad that he could help his friends. It was then that he realised that his needle-like hair had a special purpose. He could protect himself and his friends from danger.

Section G: Comprehension

Read the passage below carefully.

Mrs Tan was alone at home reading the newspaper. She was bored so she decided to read something else. The bookshelf was filled with story books, magazines and recipe books.

Suddenly, she had an idea.

"I'll bake a cake!" she exclaimed.

A picture of a chocolate cake in a recipe book caught her eyes. After she had read the instructions, she realised that she only had a packet of sugar and flour at home. Picking up her purse, she went to the supermarket to buy some eggs, butter and cocoa powder.

She returned home and started preparing the ingredients. She mixed the butter and sugar before adding in the eggs, flour and cocoa powder. Finally, she placed the cake mixture into the oven.

Minutes later, the cake was baked. She opened the oven door and the aroma of cocoa filled the kitchen.

"A cake, the entire family can enjoy!" she said excitedly.

Read the passage carefully. Answer the questions that follow.

The scorching sun stood high as a thirsty ant was crawling along the riverbank. He had been searching for food all morning and decided to have a drink from the river. As the tiny ant made his way down, he slipped and fell into the water. He wailed frantically, "Someone, please save me or I'll drown!"

Fortunately, a dove perching on a tree branch above heard his cries and immediately went to his rescue. Using her beak, the dove plucked a leaf and dropped it nearby. The ant struggled but eventually managed to climb onto the leaf and floated ashore safely.

"How can I ever repay your kindness for saving my life, dear dove?" the ant cried out thankfully.

Moments later, a hunter hiding among the tall trees was about to trap the dove. Seeing that the hunter was about to cast the net, the sharp ant raced towards him and bit his leg. The hunter screamed in pain while the dove took off in a flurry. She gave a loud coo to thank the little ant for his act of bravery.
