SECTION G: COMPREHENSION (8 x 1 mark)

Read the passage below and answer questions 35 to 42.

Have you heard of Nessie, the Loch Ness Monster? Loch Ness is a very large deep lake in Scotland. Many people think a monster lives in it. The first report of Nessie was back in the sixth century. A monk called Saint Columba reported seeing a monster in the water.

Then, in 1933, Nessie was reportedly seen again by George Spicer and his wife – they said that it had crossed the road in front of their car. The next year, a surgeon, Robert Kenneth Wilson took a photograph of Nessie, which became very famous. It was later revealed to be just a photograph of a toy submarine meant as a practical joke.

Since then, many more people have claimed that they had seen the famous Loch Ness Monster. Some have tried to take photographs and videos but no one has been successful so far.

People have scanned the lake carefully with equipment like underwater cameras and microphones. Others have also tried exploring the lake using submarines but it is very deep and very dark.

There are lots of likely explanations for what people have seen in Loch Ness. The monster has been thought to be just a giant eel, a large bird, a tree or a seal. A few people even think it was a plesiosaur, which was a type of dinosaur.

Hannah looked around her room. Her room was full of cuddly soft toys. She liked all of them very much. She wondered which one she should give to Aunt Lisa, her favourite aunt, who had been hospitalised due to a chest infection. She thought for a very long time but in the end, she changed her mind.

In the afternoon, Hannah's mom told her that she would be visiting Aunt Lisa. "I miss her a lot so I have made her a card. Please pass it to her when you visit her later," said Hannah. When Hannah's mom was about to leave the house, Hannah handed her a heart-shaped card. Using a glitter marker and with her neatest handwriting, she had written three words on the card. The words expressed her hope that her aunt would get well soon. Inside the card, she also pasted a photograph of Aunt Lisa and herself. They had taken the photograph in December while shopping for her Christmas present.

A week later, Hannah went with her parents to visit Aunt Lisa. Although she had looked forward to this visit, she felt a little anxious. When they entered Aunt Lisa's ward, Hannah walked quickly to her aunt's bed. She was relieved to see Aunt Lisa sitting up and smiling broadly at her. Hannah gave a shout of joy because she could see her card on the small table beside her bed. Aunt Lisa gave her a big hug and said gently, "Thank you for the beautiful card."
