The majie were a group of women who worked as domestic helpers in Singapore between the 1930s and 1970s. They were easily (16) identified by their plaited hair or hair buns and distinctive black and white outfits. Most (17) hailed from a district in China's Guangdong Province and (18) took vows never to marry.

A majie was responsible for all aspects of household chores, including cooking, cleaning, washing and taking care of the children. The list of chores for a majie was rather extensive, catering to every (19) whim of her employer. Many of them served their employers faithfully for a long time and were generally treated as part of the family.

The only (20) respite a majie would get from her duties was when she spent time with her fellow domestic helpers at the end of a work day. Despite the poor living conditions, most of these women treated each other like family as they had no one else to rely on during those trying times.

Talent Lane

Support local talents!

Are you tired of the unoriginal products found in the malls?
Do you appreciate handmade crafts?
Would you like to get something custom-made for yourself?
Are you looking for one-of-a-kind gifts?

The Talent Lane Weekend Craft Fair is organised by The Arts Community to promote local handmade crafts and provide a different shopping experience.

Saturday Opening Hours: 12 p.m. to 6 p.m.
Sunday Opening Hours: 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.
Website: www.theartscomm.sg/tlwcf
Please note that all stalls only accept cash payments.

Humble Beginnings

Sewing has been a hobby of best friends, Avery Pan and Sheena Chong, ever since they were at school together. Mrs Janet Tan, their Primary 5 Art teacher, had taught them basic skills. With her guidance, they each finished sewing a pencil case. After that, they borrowed library books that showed them how to sew other items, and spent their free time sewing together. In their teenage years, they were sewing bags and clothes for themselves!

Avery and Sheena's friends noticed that the girls were always wearing unique and trendy clothes. When they found out that Avery and Sheena's clothes were homemade, they were amazed and wanted the girls to sew clothes for them too! Encouraged by their friends' support, Avery and Sheena decided to turn their hobby into a business. They were the first to set up a stall on Talent Lane every weekend.

After merely a year, the craft fair now showcases more than 50 stalls selling a wide variety of handmade crafts such as clothes, bags, fashion accessories and homeware.

Weekend Craft Fair

Talent Lane is conveniently located within walking distance of Sophia MRT Station! Come and check out what's in store for you this weekend!

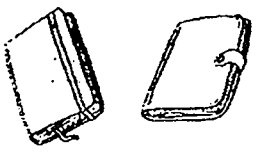

New stalls opening in the month of June!

☆ Friends Galore ☆

Renee Lim found it increasingly difficult to get ideal gifts for her friends and started making special diaries for them every year. She's all ready to help you and your friends get organised!

☆ Active Bags ☆

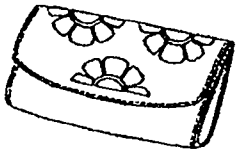

Run by a pair of siblings, Ryan and Dylan Goh, this stall offers smart backpacks designed to suit busy people juggling several activities in a day. With compartments for clothes, shoes, toiletries, water bottles, laptops, mobile phones, wallets, and other small personal items, these bags will ensure that you go from place to place in style!

☆ Nana's Studio ☆

Naomi Sim uses bright and colourful prints to create coin pouches, purses, sling bags and bags for toiletries that are popular with ladies. She also makes leather key pouches and wallets that would appeal to anyone with good taste. This stall features one of the largest range of products at the fair! It's very unlikely that you will walk away empty-handed!

Read the passage below and answer questions 71 to 80. (20 marks)

Practice after practice, Cody eagerly gave everything he had. But being half the size of the other boys, he got absolutely nowhere. At all the matches, this hopeful athlete sat on the bench and never got a chance to play in a match till that day. This is the story of Cody Simmons.

Cody lived alone with his grandpa and the two of them had a very special relationship. Cody's grandpa encouraged him to pursue football but also made it very clear that he did not have to play football if he did not want to.

Cody was the smallest in the class and was considered too short. Therefore, everyone was sure Cody could never make the cut when he decided to try out for the school football team. But, he did! The news thrilled him so much that he rushed to call his grandpa. His grandpa shared his excitement. Though Cody was always on the bench, his grandpa never missed a match.

Cody was determined to give his best at every practice, hoping that he would at least get to play one day. In his free time, Cody would watch videos of international football matches to improve his skills. Determined to become a better player, he always asked for extra tips from his coach.

This quiet and persistent young athlete never missed a practice but never got to play in a single match. The coach kept Cody on the roster because he always put his heart and soul into every practice, and at the same time, spurred the other members on with words of encouragement.

One day, at the end of the senior football season, the coach had bad news for Cody. His grandpa had passed away that morning. Cody was silent. Swallowing hard, he said, "Is it alright if I miss the practice today?" The coach said gently, "Take the rest of the week off, son. Please do not come back for the finals on Saturday."

Soon, it was Saturday, and the match was not going well. Then, a silent young man slipped into the empty locker room and put on his football gear. As he ran onto the sidelines, the coach and his players were astounded to see their faithful teammate back so soon. "Coach, please let me play," he pleaded. The coach pretended not to hear him. There was no way he wanted his worst player in this important match. But the young man persisted, and finally, feeling sorry for Cody, the coach gave in.

Before long, everyone in the stands could not believe their eyes. This little unknown, who had never played before, was doing everything right. The opposing team could not stop him. He ran, he passed, and tackled like a star. His team began to triumph. The score was soon tied. In the closing seconds of the match, Cody intercepted a pass and ran all the way for the winning touchdown. His teammates hoisted him onto their shoulders to the accompaniment of cheers.

After a while, the coach noticed Cody sitting quietly. He said, "Son, I can't believe it. You were fantastic! Tell me what got into you? How did you do it?" He looked at the coach, with tears in his eyes, and said, "Well, you knew my grandpa died, but did you know that he was blind?" Cody swallowed hard and forced a smile, "Grandpa came to all my matches, but today was the first time he could see me play, and I wanted to show him I could do it!" Adapted from: http://www.englishdaily62226.com	40
