Section G – Comprehension – Selected Response and Open-ended (8 marks)
Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

In 1927, I was a student in Outram School. We had just received our report books. I did badly in most of my subjects as expected. My family had just moved from Holland Road to Kampung Bahru a few months before. For my buddies, the move was a disaster. There were too many friends in my new neighbourhood and I spent hours playing football. When my mother asked me to do my homework, I would often lie, "No homework."

Though rusty, I roamed the neighbourhood on my old bicycle. My marks went down. My teacher, Mr Doraisamy, wrote four words in my report book – Can work, but lazy. At that time, the principal would meet with pupils who were lazy. Mr Doraisamy brought me to the principal's office. "Pick the magic wand you like best!" the principal announced, pointing to some canes.

I inspected the canes and noticed they all looked the same. I passed him one. Smack! I went back to class in tears. I will never forget all that happened that day. I stopped being lazy and playful. I studied hard and when the next examination results came in, I had done well. Deep in my heart, I was grateful to him for performing his 'magic'.

Section H – Comprehension – Open-ended (5 x 2 marks)
Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Mother was concerned about our diet. She decided that we had to eat at home more often. We were also not allowed to buy fast food such as burgers. My brother Meng and I did not like this new arrangement.

One evening, Mother needed to run out to get groceries. "Boys, I have left some money on the table for you to buy dinner," Mother announced before she left for Sunshine Market. After she left, Meng grabbed the money and smiled gleefully. I knew what he was thinking. "We are not going to Giga Burger!" I warned him. Meng pleaded pitifully and I finally relented. We made our way to the nearby mall and headed straight to Giga Burger!

There was a long queue and we looked around nervously. Finally, we placed our orders for two kid's meals. Each meal came with a Giga Burger toy spaceship! We went to a quiet corner at the back of the restaurant so that we would not bump into anyone we knew. They might tell mother! After we had finished eating, I announced, "Let's go!" Meng grabbed a handful of ketchup packets to take home.

When we reached home, we dumped everything on the dining table. Then, we grabbed the toy spaceships and started to play. Suddenly, we heard the sound of Mother's keys and quickly hid the toys.

"How was dinner?" Mother asked. "Fine. We had chicken rice ," I answered nervously. Mother stared at the dining table. We had forgotten to hide the ketchup! Mother scolded us for what we had done.
