Whale hunting or whaling has been going on for a long time in countries like Japan, Iceland and Norway. This is making many people upset (16) because the world's whale population is in great danger. It became a critical (17) problem in the 1960s because as ships grew larger, they could hold more whales than before. Fishermen could catch whales in bigger numbers. As a result, the whale population shrank drastically. The giant mammals almost (18) became extinct.

Something needed to be done to protect these majestic mammals. In 1986, whaling for money was banned (19) worldwide. Japan was frustrated with the rules. It announced (20) that it would start commercial whaling again. While this angered people elsewhere, many Japanese felt that other countries should not tell them what they could or could not hunt for food.

Dear Grandma,

(39) [ ] (40) [ ]

Bad news! A severe storm brought away trees and fences all over my neihbourhud. Despite all the damage left by the strong winds, my heart was strangely warmed by an incident I witnezid the day after the storm.

(41) [ ]

While I was mending my fence at my front porch, I heard loud horning. To my horror, I saw a small puppy crouched in the middle of the road. My heart almost stopped. The traffic was dense during the peek hours, and no driver stopped to save the poor puppy.

(42) [ ]

(43) [ ]

(44) [ ]

Just then, a big and ajile German Shepherd appeared, dodging the cars on the busy road. It

(45) [ ] (46) [ ]

stopped to stand guard around the small injured puppy. It was unaware to the danger it had put itself in. You does know that those cars could have just run into it, don't you, Grandma? Unbowed and coureigous, it remained beside the puppy as cars screeched all around it. One car finally

(47) [ ]

(48) [ ]

(49) [ ]

stopped and the driver jingerli carried the puppy to the footpath. The German Shepherd followed behind. Immediate, I called the animal shelter.

(50) [ ]

What a brave German Shepherd! I'll write to you again soon and do take care, Grandma.

Love,
Dorothy
