Section C: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage below and answer questions 11 to 17.

My brother, Timmy, liked to play pranks on us. He would cry for help when it was not needed. Timmy enjoyed seeing people get tricked by him. He would laugh loudly upon seeing our worried faces. My parents had warned him about the consequences but he never listened. Timmy pulled so many pranks on us that we stopped trusting him.

One afternoon, as I was doing my homework in my room, I heard Timmy shouting for help. I ignored him as I assumed that it was one of his mischievous acts. "Help, please help! There's a fire!" Timmy shouted. Upon hearing his repeated cries, I wondered if I should check it out. However, I recalled the times when he laughed in my face and was determined not to fall for his pranks again.

Suddenly, I smelled smoke. I dashed out of my room and saw that the living room was filled with smoke. Timmy was trying to put out the fire with a wet towel. My parents also rushed out of their room. Father quickly ran to the kitchen and grabbed a fire extinguisher. He managed to put out the fire in time.

Timmy learnt his lesson. He realised that he had been wrong to play all those pranks in the past. He promised that he would never do it again.
