Bear, Reindeer and Fox were great friends. One day, Bear and Reindeer found a tree with many fruits and decided to keep it a secret. Soon they met Fox, who seeing them so happy, asked them why. They told him they could not tell him because it was a secret. Fox asked them to trust him, so they told him about the tree.

When they arrived at a village, Fox forgot about his promise and told everyone about the tree. When Bear and Reindeer returned to the tree, the animals from the village had already been there and eaten all the fruits.

Bear and Reindeer then found another place full of food and the same thing happened again with Fox. Frustrated by these betrayals, they decided to teach Fox a lesson.

The next day, they told Fox that they had found a lake so full of fish that no effort was needed to catch them. Fox again told everyone in the village about this. A while later, Fox came by, covered in bruises. After telling all the animals about the lake, everyone had rushed there. As they did not find anything, they gave Fox a good beating.

Fox learned that trust was very important and that to get it in the first place, he should learn to keep his word. Bear and Reindeer decided to forgive him and Fox never betrayed his friends again.
