Section D: Comprehension

Read the following passage carefully.

Fox is always hungry. As he walks in the forest, the other animals hide away in fear. He then meets Crow sitting on a tree branch. She has some cheese in her beak.

Fox wants the cheese for himself. He smiles at Crow and says, "You look so pretty today." Crow is happy to hear that. Then Fox continues to admire her beautiful feathers. After that, Fox asks if she can sing. Crow nods her head. As she opens her beak to sing, the cheese falls down from her beak.

Fox quickly snaps it up. Crow asks Fox to give it back but he just laughs.

"Don't always believe people who say nice things. Sometimes, they just want something from you," Fox says.

Adapted from The Fox and the Crow retold by Mairi Mackinnon
