B) Comprehension

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

Mrs Tan, Kim's neighbour, was ill. She asked Kim to look after her dog, Wally. Mrs Tan told Kim what she had to do with Wally. Kim needed to feed Wally, walk him and play with him thrice a day. Wally was a happy dog. He liked to run and jump. Kim would use an old rag to play tug-of-war with Wally.

One morning, Kim was at home with Wally. After feeding him, it was time to play. However, Kim forgot to close the gate. When Wally saw the open gate, he bolted through it. He ran merrily down the street and went into Mrs Tan's garden. He ran around her house and jumped into her water fountain. Wally enjoyed splashing in the water fountain. Kim could not get Wally out of it.

Then, Kim spotted a rug near Mrs Tan's back door. She quickly grabbed it and waved it at Wally. Wally spotted the rug in Kim's hand and immediately leapt out of the water fountain. Soon, Wally joined Kim in his favourite game of tug-of- war.

Mrs Tan, who saw the whole incident, laughed heartily. She was pleased with Kim who had been taking good care of her dog, Wally.
