Last Saturday, Mei went to a nearby food centre with her father. As it was the lunch hour, the food centre was crowded. After waiting for some time, they found two empty seats. Mei decided to have a plate of chicken rice while her father chose a bowl of noodles. Mei's face lit up when she saw her father approaching their table with a tray filled with their food.

Meanwhile, at the next table, an old lady was holding onto her grandson's arm and scolding him. The little boy pulled his arm away and his hand hit the tray that Mei's father was carrying. Crash! To their dismay, everything fell onto the floor. Luckily, the bowl of hot noodles did not land on Mei who was just next to them.

The little boy apologised to Mei and her father while his grandmother looked at them apologetically. She offered to pay for the food but Mei's father politely declined the offer.
