Section E: Open-ended Comprehension 1 (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

I did not always get along with my younger brother, Ben. Our relationship was not good even before the birth of my baby sister, Rose. Ben "won" when Rose arrived because he managed to keep his position of being the only son in the family!

Unlike Ben, I worked hard and obeyed my parents to make them happy. Besides being annoying, Ben had no respect for me although I was the eldest sibling. He sneaked into my room one day and destroyed all evidence of my hard work. He cut up all my award certificates I had carefully pasted in a scrapbook. All my certificates were destroyed. This included a certificate stating the number of lengths I had swum in a swimming competition. Ben also destroyed a precious photograph of Olympian Joseph Schooling and me taken after the competition.

My furious father made Ben write a letter to the organiser of the swimming competition. In the letter, he wanted Ben to explain what he had done and ask if the certificate could be replaced. Most of the time, certificates could be replaced, but with a fee. However, in this case, the organiser turned up in person with the replacement certificate for me and a box of chocolates for my brother. He found my brother's letter hilarious and felt sorry for him!

Section F: Open-ended Comprehension 2 (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Geppetto lived with a cat in a faintly lit house kept warm by a small fireplace. The thin cloud of smoke it produced immediately escaped through the old chimney, keeping the air in his house clear.

Hunching over his workbench in the living room, Geppetto took his tools and set to work, cutting out and modelling his puppet. He had decided to call his puppet, Pinocchio. He began to work on Pinocchio's hair, then his forehead, and subsequently his eyes.

When the eyes were done, Geppetto was astonished when they blinked several times. Thinking he was just imagining it, Geppetto continued to work on Pinocchio's ears before carving the nose. Once Geppetto had finished carving the nose, he jumped up in horror as he watched the nose grow till it became quite long! Pinocchio was a living boy! After getting over his fright, Geppetto began working on the mouth. When it was completed, Pinocchio started to sing loudly. As it was too loud, Geppetto asked Pinocchio to stop. However, the more he asked the boy to stop, the louder the boy sang! Tired of asking Pinocchio to stop singing, he gave up. The boy, finding it funny, laughed at Geppetto.

The hands were scarcely finished when Geppetto felt his wig snatched from his head. Furrowing his eyebrows, Geppetto continued working. When Geppetto had finished the feet, he received a kick.

"Owl" Geppetto exclaimed, his hand shooting up to his painful nose. He groaned in pain as he rubbed the kicked area.
