Section F: Comprehension 1 (8 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

It was the day of the basketball selection test at my school. I was in the school hall, hoping to be selected. I was nervous as there were many girls who seemed much taller than me. I usually played basketball for fun with my friends.

At the start of the selection test, we were told to find a partner. The coaches passed us the ball and we dribbled it up and down the court. It was quite easy. Next, we had to run sideways while passing the ball to our partners. The coaches wrote down some notes as they watched our performance.

Halfway through the selection test, some of the girls who were not selected left the hall. I heaved a sigh of relief as I had made it through to the next stage. Before long, only ten participants were left in the hall. After that, we were placed into two teams. I prepared myself for the final match.

Our team was determined to win. It was a tough game as the other team had some excellent players. At the final moment, I managed to steal the ball from a reckless opponent. Then, I glanced at the clock.

We had one minute left. I ran to the hoop and aimed the ball at it. I threw the ball and it passed through the hoop! Beep! The game ended. One of the coaches gave me a thumbs up. I smiled as I knew I was going to be accepted into the school basketball team.

Section G: Comprehension 2 (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Bobby lived in a village near a mountain. He always dreamt of climbing to the top of the mountain to enjoy the view. However, he tried many times to reach the top but failed. He would start climbing early in the morning but would give up when it became too bright to see clearly. The villagers knew about this but did not offer him any advice. Bobby was always afraid that they would laugh at him for his failed attempts. Only Piper, his best friend, would offer him advice and encouragement.

One morning, Piper gave him a pair of sunglasses. "Put this pair of sunglasses on if it gets too bright later," he said. Bobby nodded before making his way up the mountain. Piper reminded him not to give up. Halfway up the mountain, the sun shone into Bobby's eyes, making them uncomfortable. Then he remembered Piper's advice. He quickly put on the sunglasses. To his amazement, he could see the top of the mountain.

Feeling confident, Bobby kept climbing and finally arrived at the top of the mountain. The view was fantastic. Bobby was delighted. When he removed the pair of sunglasses, he was surprised to find something unusual about it. He then noticed that Piper had drawn the outline of the top of the mountain on the sunglasses.

Bobby then realised that Piper wanted him to think that the top of the mountain was not too far away from him. Piper knew that if Bobby could see the top of the mountain, he would not lose hope. The only thing that was stopping Bobby from achieving his goal was himself. That day, Bobby learnt about being determined and not giving up easily. He was thankful to have a wonderful friend like Piper.
