Section H: Comprehension Open-Ended (10 marks)

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow. Your answers must be based on the passage read.

It was Social Studies lesson. Meg had revised the reservoirs in Singapore the evening before. However, when Miss Poh asked her to name one, she could not remember any. Reluctantly, she stood up and kept quiet. When the teacher prompted her to answer, she rolled her eyes and folded her arms defiantly. One classmate remarked, "Have you been meeting friends online?" The class laughed. She clenched her fist and banged hard on her table.

"If you're going to be rude, Meg, you may leave the room," Miss Poh ordered.

Feeling indignant, Meg flounced out to the self-study room. Not long after, the principal, Mr Sim, came to look for her.

"Now Meg, I'm sure you can complete your homework if you want to and you have to show your teachers that," Mr Sim said. Meg remained quiet.

Mr Sim asked if something was bothering her. At first, she shook her head, not wanting Mr Sim to know her worries. She then looked away to avoid Mr Sim's gaze, afraid he could read her mind.

"Miss Poh told me you have been spending too much time on computer games," Mr Sim spoke.

"Mr Sim, that's none of your business what I do at home," she hissed.

"Stop being rude," Mr Sim said sternly. Mr Sim sighed and said in a gentle voice. "I expected more from you but you have let me down." To his surprise, Mr Sim saw Meg looking down, her tears streaming down her face. Mr Sim's sincerity had finally touched her.
