SECTION G: COMPREHENSION (8 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

"Did you play in the rain again?" Daniel's father asked his son crossly.

"It's not a big deal," Daniel said casually as he walked into the house all drenched.

That night, Daniel broke out in cold sweat from his sleep. He looked at the alarm clock and realised that he had only been asleep for less than an hour. He touched his forehead and it was terribly hot.

Daniel sat up on his bed slowly and the moment his feet touched the floor, he felt the room was spinning. He struggled to call out for his mother but to no avail. Tears of helplessness rolled down his cheeks. He knew he needed to get his parents' attention as he was feeling very ill. Suddenly, an idea struck him when he saw a pile of books beside his bed. He pushed it to the floor forcefully and within a few seconds, his mother appeared at the door.

"I heard a loud noise. Are you alright?" Daniel's mother asked anxiously.

When she saw Daniel's pale face, she knew something was not right. She hurriedly woke her husband up so that he could drive Daniel to the hospital.

The doctor examined Daniel thoroughly. Daniel had to be warded for a day. He was going to miss the chess competition that he had been training for weeks.

It was indeed a painful learning experience for Daniel.
