Section C : Comprehension (8 marks)

Read the passage below and answer questions 17 to 21.

It was Anna's first day at school for the new academic year. She pulled a long face as she waited for the school bus. Soon, the bus arrived. Still scowling, Anna dragged her feet up the bus.

She scanned the seats in the bus and found an empty spot. Then, she made her way down the aisle towards the only available seat. It was next to a tall girl named Kyra. "Could this day get any worse?" Anna mumbled to herself. The thought of sitting next to her enemy irritated her. However, she was left with no other choice. She sat down next to Kyra.

Anna secretly watched Kyra from the corner of her eye. Something in Kyra's hand caught her eye. Kyra was looking at a brand new mobile phone. Anna thought life was unfair. Her mother had refused to buy her a mobile phone. It was taking her a long time to save up to get it herself. Soon, the bus arrived at their destination. Hastily, Kyra put away her mobile phone.

Everybody had alighted and Anna was the last. As she stood up, she spotted Kyra's mobile phone on the seat next to hers. "If I keep this for myself, no one would know," she thought to herself. Anna pondered for a few minutes before making a decision. Although she did not like Kyra, she knew she had to do the right thing. Anna quickened her steps. She had to look for Kyra.

Section F: Comprehension 2 (10 marks)
Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time, in a small village in Africa, lived a man named Mufa and his two daughters. They were Maya and Nasha. Everyone praised them for their beauty. However, that was the only trait that the girls shared.

Maya had a bad temper. She constantly teased her sister behind their father's back. She always boasted that she would become a queen one day and that Nasha would be her servant. Nasha always responded in a kind manner.

One day, Nasha noticed a small garden snake in the garden. "Good day, Snaky. I am glad to see you here. You will keep all the pests away from my vegetables." From then on, both of them would meet daily. Nasha would sing sweetly to Snaky.

Early one morning, a messenger from the grand palace arrived. He announced, "All the most worthy and beautiful maidens in the land are invited to appear before the King tomorrow night. One of them will become Queen!"

Mufa excitedly informed his daughters that he was taking them to the palace. That night, Maya sneaked out, as she wanted to be the first lady to see the King. When she arrived at the entrance of the palace, she met the garden snake.

"Move!" Maya kicked the snake away and rushed into the palace. However, she did not meet the king. Instead, she was thrown into the dungeons.
