"Hey, you there! Litterbug!"

I jumped guiltily as I heard the shout from behind me. Turning around, I came face to face with a police officer whose face was twisted with (16) rage. He was gesturing angrily at a crumpled plastic bag lying on the pavement. I had (17) absent-mindedly thrown the plastic bag onto the ground a few seconds before he caught me. Subsequently, I was issued a summons for littering and had to serve Corrective Work Order at a park.

It was a sunny Friday morning when I reported to a supervisor at Bishan Park who instructed me to collect a rake and a dustpan from a man wearing a luminous yellow vest (18) emblazoned with the words 'Corrective Work Order'. At first, I thought that the rake could be (19) wielded effortlessly. However, it was too large and I constantly struggled to control it. Also, passing traffic blew the leaves all over the place, scattering the ones I had already swept. Half an hour later, panting loudly, I paused to (20) take a breather. My upper arms were aching so much that I thought they might fall off. I vowed not to throw litter unthinkingly ever again.

Here's what our visitor, Mr Ahmed has to say...

When I was little, my father, who loves nature, would often take me to Bird Paradise Park. We never missed the bird shows and were awed by the birds' show-stopping antics. I loved watching the interactive feeding sessions and learning more about the birds. Now that I'm a father myself, I make it a point to bring my family here. Though my sons do not share my passion for feeding the birds, they're always thrilled by the bird shows. I'm glad that the park is starting a campaign on saving the Blue Parrots from extinction.

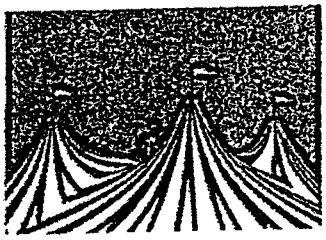

This park is fully funded by the Tan Foundation – a community effort to educate the public about wildlife conservation.

Read this passage and answer Questions 71 to 80. (20 marks)

Jim and Selena were zoology students. As part of their studies on wildlife, they travelled to the Wildlife Reserve Park in Sarawak, hoping to observe unusual animals such as the sun bear and the orangutan. To their disappointment, they only spotted common birds, lizards, squirrels and monkeys in the park. Jim and Selena experienced this frustration for the first few days of their trip. Jim, who had always wanted to study exotic wildlife up close, began to wonder if it was going to be a fruitless trip.

On the second week of their trip, Jim and Selena set off early in the morning to explore the surrounding forested areas at the foot of a mountain. That night, they made their way back to their hostel. While driving, the headlights of their car picked out a creature crossing the road. It was a blurred figure that had just made it to the grass patch along the road. Immediately, Jim stepped on his brakes and the car came to a halt, a safe distance away from it.

The surrounding area was pitch black. Jim plucked up his courage and opened the car door slowly. He moved carefully towards the creature with a torch in his hand. Selena's heart was in her mouth as she prayed for Jim's safety.

"Could it be a wild cat?" Jim wondered. It was about 50cm long and 6cm tall. Jim's curiosity was piqued. At first, he was afraid that the creature might attack him. Then, he recalled reading about the animal on the Internet, and knew without a doubt that it was a pangolin – a harmless anteater. "My dream has come true!" Jim thought excitedly. Trembling with excitement, he reached out tentatively to touch the animal.

The pangolin turned slowly and began to crawl away. Selena could see it too as Jim shone his torch slightly away from the pangolin but enough to illuminate its scales. It had a thick tail like a crocodile's and its back was covered in golden scales. The pangolin had a lean, pointed face. Its long claws clicked against the road surface. One of its claws was hurt and bleeding. It took no notice of Jim who tiptoed behind it. However, when Jim tapped its back gently, a most fascinating thing happened. The pangolin, sensing danger, took on a different shape. It shyly curled itself into a tight, golden, scaled ball.

Gingerly, Jim picked up the pangolin and held it tight against his chest to ensure that he did not drop it. It weighed about 4kg. Cradled in Jim's arms, the pangolin decided to uncurl itself. That was when its golden scales and sharp claws ripped the flesh of Jim's thumb. Jim let out a yelp but did not dare let go. Quickly, Selena opened the boot of the car and brought out a towel to wrap the pangolin. It immediately curled up into a ball once again. "You're frightening it!" Selena chided him before placing it into a cardboard box with some grass. They decided to take the pangolin to the vet at the Wildlife Reserve Park.

"Do you know that poachers trap pangolins for their claws and scales to make earrings?" said the vet grimly. He then treated its injury and eventually released it into the reserve park. Both Jim and Selena were glad, knowing that the park rangers would ensure the safety of the pangolin. It really made their trip to Sarawak worthwhile.
