Section E: Comprehension

Read the passage carefully.

Nancy lived with her mother on a small farm. They were very poor and her mother worked very hard to take care of the animals and vegetables in their small farm. Unlike her mother, Nancy was lazy and she hated to work. She preferred to sit at home and laze around.

One day, Nancy's mother fell very ill. She could not work on the farm anymore and she had no money to buy food. She told Nancy to take the only cow they had and sell it at the market. The market was miles away and Nancy was reluctant to walk all the way there. However, she had no choice but to do so.

She led the cow by a rope and they walked down the bumpy road to the market. Suddenly, the cow walked faster as it saw a green pasture ahead. Nancy had to run to catch up with it. Soon, Nancy felt tired. She untied the rope round the cow's neck and said, "You go ahead. I will take a rest and catch up with you at the market." When Nancy finally reached the market two hours later, the cow was nowhere to be found. She went home sadly and got a scolding from her mother.
