Section A: Comprehension 1 (7 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

On the last day of school, Jenny and Dolly were walking home from school with great excitement. Jenny was going to Dolly's house to play for the day. When they reached Dolly's house, Jenny did not expect to find a parcel at the doorstep.

The two girls eagerly tore open the parcel. To their disappointment, it was a box of cloth. The cloth had been cut into square pieces, all of the same size.

"Who could have sent this to you?" asked Jenny curiously. Then she noticed a piece of paper by the side of the box. It was a note from the sender. Jenny picked it up and read it aloud, "Hi! Aunt Joyce. Please find the pieces of cloth which I promised to send. They are cut according to the size that you want. Hope you will be able to sew them into a patchwork blanket for Grandmother. It will be such a wonderful gift for her birthday. Thank you!"

Jenny and Dolly felt bad about opening the parcel so they decided to return it to the rightful owner. When they checked the name and address, it was none other than Dolly's neighbour. They quickly brought the parcel to Aunt Joyce and apologised for opening the parcel.

Section B: Comprehension 2 (8 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

A poor old woman was trotting home one evening when she came across a big pot. Thinking that she could put a flower in it at her window, then she decided to take it home. She bent down and tried to pick it up.

When she looked inside, she was pleasantly surprised to see the pot full of gold. It was her first treasure! Carrying it would break her back, so she tied the end of her shawl to the pot and dragged it behind her.

Soon, she stopped to rest her feet. However, she was shocked when she looked at her treasure. It was not a pot of gold! It was nothing but a lump of silver.

"But this is great!" she said finally. "Silver is not easily stolen. The gold pieces could attract robbers."

She started walking again until she had no choice but to take a much-needed little nap. When she woke up, the treasure was nothing but a lump of iron!

"This is luck! I shall sell this iron and be rich."

She started off again, planning on how she would spend her money. When her bones ached, she stopped and looked behind to check her treasure. At once, her heart skipped a beat.

"Oh my!"

The stone had turned into a creature and it looked like it was going to pounce on her. She tried hard to calm herself down.
