Section F: Comprehension Open-Ended – Passage A (8 marks)

Read the passage carefully and annotate. Answer the following questions.

Claire was having a good time at the playground when she fell off the swing. With tears in her eyes, she went home.

Soon, Claire met her friend, Amy, outside the bookstore. Amy opened her mouth wide as she pointed to Claire's injured knee, asking if it hurt. Claire shook her head. As Claire enjoyed making up fantasy worlds to entertain people, she came up with a story. Waving her arms about excitedly, she told Amy what had happened. She said that a big dog had sneaked up behind and growled at her. Shocked, she fell. She shouted and chased the dog away. Amy listened closely and praised her for being brave.

Claire continued her way home and met another friend, Paul, at the bus stop. She told him excitedly that she saw a little kitten struggling in a drain. She bent to scoop it out. However, she slipped and hurt her knee. Paul widened his eyes. He applauded her for her bravery. Claire thanked him and left quickly. She did not want him to find out that she had made it all up.

Claire soon reached home. She explained to Mother that she had fallen at the playground. Mother gave Claire a gentle hug.

"Let me put a plaster on your knee," she comforted her.

Comprehension Open-Ended – Passage B (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and annotate. Answer the questions that follow. Your answers must be based on the passage.

Fatima suddenly remembered the present given by Jack. Did it have some kind of light? She fumbled in her pocket. Her trembling fingers closed around a compass. She yanked it out and held it in front of her eyes. There was no light emitted nor button to press. She could not use it as a torch. In fact, she could barely make out the directions on it.

Fatima gritted her teeth and put the compass back into her pocket. She knew her eyes would adjust to the dark eventually. "There would be some light coming through the windows. I would be able to see and find my way out from here," she thought.

However, it was still pitch black. Shudders ran through Fatima's body. She tried to breathe more slowly. She had been standing facing the sinks when the light went out. She turned around and put her hands out in front of her. Pushing away all her fears, she started inching her way out.

After walking for some time, all that her hands touched was just air - no wall, no door. Feeling helpless, she dragged her feet. Was the restroom bigger than she remembered?

Just then, she could see a glimmer of light. The black was turning slowly into grey. Relieved, she could make out shapes, but she still could not tell where the door was. Fatima frowned. She then tried to match the shapes with her memories of the restroom. After all, it was not the first time that she was there.

In the darkness, her hands touched something strange and soft. Screaming loudly, Fatima pulled her hand away. She then continued to grope in the dark. "No matter what, keep going until you reach a wall or a door," she muttered. Suddenly, she could feel her legs trembling as the ground shook.
