Section H : Comprehension (8 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time, a soldier came into a village that suffered a great famine. Fearful that they would not have enough to last, the villagers hid whatever small amounts of food they had from their friends and neighbours. Many started to steal too.

That evening, the soldier pulled a big cooking pot from his wagon. He filled it with water and built a fire under it. The villagers watched as he reached slowly into his cloth bag and pulled a plain gray stone from it. He dropped it into the water. The villagers were intrigued by the 'magic' stone and surrounded the soldier and his cooking pot. As the soldier sniffed the stone soup and licked his lips, the hungry villagers became curious.

The soldier said out loud that the soup would taste better if it had more ingredients. One by one, the starving villagers ran to their homes and returned with vegetables, onions, potatoes and scraps of beef. The eager villagers watched closely as the soldier mixed the ingredients. When the soup was ready, the soldier shared it among the villagers. They were amazed by how delicious it tasted.

The villagers offered the soldier money and other treasures in exchange for the 'magic' stone but he refused to sell it. The next day, he made his way to another village.
