Section F: Comprehension Open-Ended (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and annotate the story elements.

A young man was driving down the street in his new car, watching out for children running out from between parked cars. He would slow down whenever he saw any. He did not want an accident to happen.

Suddenly, something hard smashed against his side door! He slammed on the brakes and jumped out of his car. His eyes darted around and immediately spotted the culprit. He ran towards the child, grabbed him by his shirt and shouted, "That's a new car and that brick you threw is going to cost me a lot of money!"

The young boy was apologetic. "I'm sorry. I didn't know what else to do," he pleaded. "I threw the brick because no one else would stop..." With tears streaming down his face, the boy continued, "It's my brother. He rolled off the curb and fell off his wheelchair. I tried to lift him up but I can't. Could you please help get my brother back into his wheelchair?"

Feeling guilty, the man hurriedly went to the carpark and lifted the elder brother up into his wheelchair.

"Thank you," the boy said gratefully to the man.

Too shaken for words, the man watched as the little boy pushed his brother down the pavement.

The damage on his car was not noticeable, so the man did not bother to repair it. He wanted it to remind him not to jump to conclusion without finding out the truth.
