Read this passage and answer questions 9 to 13. (7 marks)

Irene was only two months old and with the little blubber* that she had, the cold bothered her. Having had her fill earlier, she was ready to settle down for a rest. She tucked her flippers close to her body and huddled closer to her mother.

Just then, she felt someone nudging her. Peeking out from beneath her mother, she saw another one just like her. Before she could react, he used his beak to snub her. Irene was annoyed. She ~~alse~~ did not like the other young ones around her. They were very noisy. Nearby, she saw another adult with a young waddling towards them. Irene did not like the way everyone huddled together because they tended to jostle her just when she wanted to rest. However, she knew that it was the only way everyone could keep warm.

Irene could not wait for summer to arrive. By then she would be independent enough to search for her own food in the sea. Her wings were developing now and her baby down feathers would gradually be replaced by waterproof feathers. She would be able to dive into the water to search for fish herself by then.

Irene felt movement again and looked up to see her father. She was excited. She knew what he had in store for her. She flapped her wings. He immediately threw up the food he had and fed her.
