Section C: Comprehension (10 marks)
Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

"Mother, hurry up! Come and see what's going on. Several planks from the fence of our neighbour's house have been removed!" cried Clare one morning. "There's a gap in the fence big enough for one person to go through."

Both of them decided to go to the neighbour's house to investigate. Clare's mother peeked through the windows and whispered, "The house looks like it's been ransacked. I think there's someone inside. Yes, the burglar is still in there."

At that moment, Mother carelessly knocked a flowerpot off the window sill and it crashed onto the ground loudly. The burglar whipped his head around and noticed the two of them staring at him. Realising he was being watched, the burglar tried to flee. "Come, Clare! The burglar is getting away. We've no time to lose," Mother shouted. Both mother and daughter pounced on the burglar who tried to break free.

Just then, another neighbour came to their aid. With a piece of rope that Clare had picked up from the ground, Mother tied up the burglar with the neighbour's help. When the police arrived, they handed him over to them.

"The robber also punched me in the face when Clare and I tried to hold him down," Mother told the reporters later, showing the swelling on her face and bruises on her arm.
