Section F: Comprehension

Read the passage below carefully.

Ben was walking up the path. He had been fishing and was carrying a fishing pole. He looked a little sad.

"Did you catch any?" Lucy asked him.

"No," he said. "I couldn't find any worms. I tried using bread but the fish just wouldn't bite."

"Hey, I've an idea," Lucy said. "Follow me. I think I know where we can find plenty of worms."

Earlier, Lucy had picked some tomatoes at a tomato patch. She noticed many chickens digging for worms there! She knew the place had lots of worms.

"Start digging, Ben!" Lucy said when they got there. It wasn't long before they had a big can full of worms.

"Thanks, Lucy!" Ben said. "Come on! I am sure we'll be able to catch a lot of fish now!" Ben and Lucy raced down to the pond. Ben cast his fishing line into the water. Half an hour later, he counted the fish he had caught. There were five fish. Ben was thrilled!

Section F: Comprehension

Read the passage below carefully.

Nancy lived with her mother on a small farm. They were very poor and her mother worked very hard to take care of the animals and vegetables in their small farm. Unlike her mother, Nancy was lazy and she hated to work. She preferred to sit at home and laze around.

One day, Nancy's mother fell very ill. She could not work on the farm anymore and she had no money to buy food. She told Nancy to take the only cow they had and sell it at the market. The market was miles away and Nancy was reluctant to walk all the way there. However, she had no choice but to do so.

She led the cow by a rope and they walked down the bumpy road to the market. Suddenly, the cow walked faster as it saw a green pasture ahead. Nancy had to run to catch up with it. Soon, Nancy felt tired. She untied the rope round the cow's neck and said, "You go ahead. I will take a rest and catch up with you at the market." When Nancy finally reached the market two hours later, the cow was nowhere to be found. She went home sadly and got a scolding from her mother.
