(E) Comprehension

Read this passage and answer questions 13 to 19. (8 marks)

Liam searched through the shoe cabinet anxiously. The school bus was coming any minute, and he did not want to be late for school.

Then, he looked at the back door. There they were, covered in mud on the door mat. He recalled the path was muddy when he took Rocky for a walk last night.

Liam did not want to wear the pair of muddy shoes to school, but he had no other options. He groaned inwardly as he knew the bus driver would be clicking his tongue irritatedly. He sprinted hurriedly out of the door. When the bus driver saw Liam's muddy shoes, he grumbled loudly as Liam boarded the bus. All the other students turned to look at him and laughed at his muddy shoes.

In class, Mr Johnson greeted him with a big smile, "Liam, I read the book summary you have submitted and I really enjoyed it. You have a special way with words." Liam grinned with delight, "Thanks, Mr Johnson! I really like that book."

"Great! There are more in the series. I'll show you after class," replied Mr Johnson. Liam's eyes danced with delight. He loved books, but he had none at home. He did not think about his bad day anymore. All he thought about was Mr Johnson showing him the books after class. He loved reading books especially those about science and those that included magical elements.

When class ended, Mr Johnson showed Liam a bookshelf full of books. Liam looked uncertainly at his teacher and asked, "Can I borrow them?" Mr Johnson smiled, "Take one at a time, and yes, you can read them all!" Liam beamed, "Thanks, Sir. I can hardly wait!"
