Section F: Comprehension Open-Ended (8 marks)
Read the passage carefully and annotate.

It was a warm and sunny Sunday morning. Ollie was having fun playing in the garden with his sister. He was running and bouncing the ball. He kicked it around the garden.

"Watch me!" Ollie laughed as he gave the ball a mighty kick. Ollie's mother and sister watched in shock as the force sent the ball and his shoe flying as high as they could be.

"Oh no!" Ollie cried as the ball and shoe flew over the garden walls and landed in the neighbour's garden.

Ollie and his sister ran over to the neighbour's gate. They saw the neighbour's dog playing with the ball. The shoe was beside the dog. When the dog saw them, it started barking fiercely at them. Ollie and his sister quickly stepped backwards. They wondered what to do next. They knew Mr Hays, their neighbour, was a stern man and might not like them to be near his garden.

Just then, Mrs Hays who had heard the dog's barking, came out of the house. She smiled at Ollie and her sister as she picked up the ball and shoe, and returned it to them.

"Thank you, Mrs Hays! I will be careful when I play next time!" Ollie said gratefully.

"You're welcome, Ollie. Just be sure to play safely," Mrs Hays replied gently.
