Comprehension (12 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Dark clouds started to gather in the sky. The siblings, Heather and Edward, were on their way home after school. As raindrops fell, Heather and Edward dashed towards the shelter under their block of flats. Suddenly, they heard a strange noise from a nearby flat and hurried to investigate. Edward knocked on the door and asked, "Anyone there?"

"Help!" a voice called out. Heather peered through the window. She saw an old lady lying helplessly on the floor. Edward realised that the door was unlocked. He immediately opened the door and the siblings hurriedly went towards her.

The old lady explained tearfully, "I tripped while trying to close the windows. Now, I cannot get up. I have to wait for my son to get home."

"We know what to do. Don't worry," Heather said. Heather knelt beside the old lady and reassured the old lady that their parents had taught them how to help older people get back up safely when they fell.

Edward took two chairs from the kitchen and placed one on each side of the old lady. The old lady held onto the chairs and pushed herself up with all her strength. Then, Edward helped her to the sofa.

"Thank you for your help," the old lady said gratefully. "My son would be home soon." Heather and Edward decided to keep the old lady company until her son got home.

Heather and Edward went home smiling that day, knowing they had made someone's day better!
