Section B: Editing (4 marks)

Each of the underlined words contains either a spelling or grammatical error. Write the correct word in each of the boxes. The circle ◯ indicates a punctuation error.

One day, Mrs Tan came to the class with a proposal. She suggested, "Since you have learnt to make ice cream during your English lessons, why don't we sell some at the school carnival that is happening next week?◯ The girls were delighted and readily agreed.

The day of the carnival arrived. With their tubs of homemade ice cream and a veraierty of toppings ready, they waited for the crowds to arrive. They served scoop after scoop of ice cream. The unyooshuel toppings, such as potato chips and wasabi peas, were extremely popular!

(6)

(7)

As they scraped the bottom of their last tub, the girls felt satisfied and proud of themself. They never thought that they could raise money for charity through their own hard work.

Section D: Grammar Cloze (5 marks)

Read the passage carefully. UNDERLINE the correct word from the words given in the brackets.

Have you been asking your parents for a pet? In recent years, garden snails (11) [found / have found] their way into the hearts and homes of pet owners.

Caring for snails (12) [is / are] simple but handling them should be done with care as you can damage them if you pick them up the wrong way. (13) [A / The] snail cannot make a sound, scratch, or bite if you are hurting it, so you can harm it unknowingly. To prevent this from happening, snails should never be picked up by their shell. Instead, let the snail (14) [crawl / crawls] onto your hand, or gently push an ice cream stick under its body.

Snails are very quiet, do not take up much time or space and are inexpensive. However, they are not cuddly, cannot be trained, and usually only (15) [live / lives] a couple of years. They make unique pets for those looking for something a little different.
