Comprehension (10 marks)
Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

The ship's horn blared loudly as it left the port. Tom and Sally, along with around 1000 other guests, were heading for a four-day holiday aboard the magnificent cruise liner, The Royal Caribbean, on a cruise to nowhere. The sole purpose of the cruise was to allow its guests to enjoy the facilities and activities onboard it. There are several restaurants and a 24-hour café for the passengers to enjoy. For entertainment, there was a video arcade, three swimming pools and a movie theatre.

As soon as the ship entered international waters, an announcement was made through the ship's public announcement system to invite guests to explore the ship and its on-board facilities. Tom and Sally were brimming with excitement and could not wait to explore the ship. They scanned through the cruise's daily programme sheet and were dumbfounded to learn that there were approximately twenty different activities per day for their age group to participate in. Both children participated in art classes and had an introductory lesson on "Cha-Cha", a dance. Later, Sally participated in a dance competition, while Tom entered the singing competition.

After a day of exploring the ship and participating in some of the activities, Tom and Sally decided to have dinner at one of the fine-dining restaurants. There, they met the captain of the ship and took the chance to have a photo taken with him too. After dinner, they headed to the ship's theatre to watch a magic show. They enjoyed their first day very much and could not wait to participate in more activities the following day. It was truly a great start to a wonderful holiday.
