Comprehension (9 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Timmy loved dinosaurs. His room that was filled with only dinosaur figurines looked like a museum. In his collection, there were a few limited edition figurines that he treasured.

One day, Timmy's mother told him she had invited her friend, Mrs Wang, over for a gathering. Mrs Wang's children, Jackson and Claire, would be coming too. Timmy was excited, but worried at the same time. He was worried Jackson and Claire might not handle the figurines properly while playing and might break them. He even thought of storing the figurines in boxes but did not have the time to do so.

When Mrs Wang and her children arrived, Timmy's mother encouraged him to show his collection of dinosaur figurines to Jackson and Claire. Timmy did not want to initially, but he agreed eventually. He also showed Jackson and Claire how to play with them. To his surprise, they were amazed by the figurines and played cautiously with them. In fact, Timmy discovered that Jackson and Claire loved dinosaurs too. The three of them had fun playing and talking about the figurines.

At the end of the day, as the guests were leaving, Timmy decided to give two of his dinosaur figurines to his new friends. Upon seeing the wide smiles on their faces, he knew he had done the right thing. He realised that sharing his toys could make others happy. This made Timmy feel good about himself.
