Section E: Comprehension OE

Read the passage below and answer questions 21 to 28.

It was a long weekend. David and his friend decided to pack their swimming trunks, sunscreen lotion and towels and set off for the beach not far from their house. They pedalled at top speed. When they were near the beach, a little boy ran across the road right in front of David's bicycle. David braked quickly but it was too late. He hit the curb and was flung off his bicycle. He landed hard on the road.

The little boy was unhurt. He quickly picked up his puppy that he had been running after. David was lucky to escape with a few injuries. David hobbled to his bicycle, picked it up and got onto it. After a painful start, he managed to ride to the beach.

The beach was crowded with people. David quickly locked his bicycle and went to change. The water was nice and warm. David and his friend had a good time swimming in the sea.
