Read the passage carefully and answer questions 26-33.

A girl named Lina lived in a small town. She loved flying kites. One day, her school held a kite-making contest. Lina took part in it. She worked hard but her kite kept falling apart.

The day before the contest, Lina saw a beautiful kite lying near the school gate. There was no name on the kite. She knew she could win the contest with it. However, she knew that it was a wrong thing to do.

Instead of keeping the kite, Lina gave it to her teacher, Mr Tan. Lina explained where she found it. Later, her classmate, Maya, came looking for her lost kite. She was happy that Lina had found it.

Although Lina did not win the contest, she smiled widely when her teacher praised her for her honesty. Lina felt proud. She knew that doing the right thing was more important than winning.

Section F: Comprehension

Read the passage carefully and answer questions 26-33.

It was Sports Day at Happy Primary School. The pupils reached the stadium early in the morning. The sun was bright, and everyone was excited. They chatted happily as they carried their water bottles and bags. Jia Min felt a little nervous because she wanted to do well in her race.

The teachers reminded everyone to drink enough water and cheer for their friends politely. When it was time for the 200-metre race, Jia Min took a deep breath. When the whistle blew, she dashed ahead and turned to wave at her friends. Her legs started to ache but she kept running.

As she crossed the finish line, she realised that all the other runners were still behind her. Her classmates cheered loudly. She smiled proudly, knowing she had tried her best.

Afterwards, Jia Min felt tired but joyful. She and her friends had enjoyed themselves cheering each other on. On the bus ride home, she thought to herself, "This is the best Sports Day ever!"
