Section F: Comprehension

Read the passage below carefully.

Ben was walking up the path. He had been fishing and was carrying a fishing pole. He looked a little sad.

"Did you catch any?" Lucy asked him.

"No," he said. "I couldn't find any worms. I tried using bread but the fish just wouldn't bite."

"Hey, I've an idea," Lucy said. "Follow me. I think I know where we can find plenty of worms."

Earlier, Lucy had picked some tomatoes at a tomato patch. She noticed many chickens digging for worms there! She knew the place had lots of worms.

"Start digging, Ben!" Lucy said when they got there. It wasn't long before they had a big can full of worms.

"Thanks, Lucy!" Ben said. "Come on! I am sure we'll be able to catch a lot of fish now!" Ben and Lucy raced down to the pond. Ben cast his fishing line into the water. Half an hour later, he counted the fish he had caught. There were five fish. Ben was thrilled!

Section F: Comprehension

Read the passage below carefully.

Betty had a pink stuffed rabbit and she named it Puff. It was her favourite toy and she would bring it everywhere she went. Betty would bring Puff along with her in her bag to have adventures in the park nearby.

There was once when Betty went to the park with Puff to look at some fish in the pond. Betty sat at the edge of the pond and she placed Puff beside her. Puff sat beside her at the edge of the pond. She leaned over and looked into the pond. Betty felt a little nervous, she did not want to fall into the pond. Betty brought some bread to feed the fish. She threw small bits of the bread into the pond and the fish got all excited, jumping and splashing in the water. Suddenly, Betty knocked Puff over and it fell into the pond. Puff was floating in the pond, soaked.

Betty fished Puff out of the water and brought her home. Betty placed Puff into the washing machine and watched Puff spin round and round in it.

Read the passage below carefully.

Giselle woke up to a bright, sunny morning. It was the weekend and she decided to go to Grandma's house in the afternoon.

Giselle packed some muffins and toast in her basket to take to Grandma's house for tea. "I'm sure Grandma would love them!" exclaimed Giselle excitedly.

On her way to Grandma's house, Giselle met her classmate, Michael. "What is in the basket, Giselle?" asked Michael. Giselle told Michael about the food that she had packed for Grandma. "Wow, can I have a look?" Michael asked, reaching for the basket.

Giselle placed the basket on the ground and showed Michael the delicious muffins and toast inside. Michael asked if he could have a muffin. Giselle agreed reluctantly, "Sure, just one, I guess."

When Giselle turned back around, Michael had finished all the muffins and toast in the basket. Giselle was very upset with him. Michael walked with Giselle to Grandma's house to explain to Grandma what had happened.

"It's alright, children. Let us bake a cake together," said Grandma. She led them into the kitchen and got ready the ingredients. Giselle was relieved that Grandma was not disappointed and together with Michael, they had a lovely chocolate cake for tea.
