Section F: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer questions 31 to 38.

Last week, Ron's parents took him to the zoo. His favourite animals were otters, tigers and even snakes!

As soon as they reached the zoo, Ron and his family walked over to the amphitheater to watch the sea lion show. Ron was excited to see that the front seats were still not filled up. He wanted to sit at the front seats so he could see the sea lions clearly. His parents decided to let him do so.

Soon, the show began. The sea lions zoomed through the pool, splashing water at the audience. Although the audience got wet, they still laughed and cheered at the playful sea lions.

During the show, the zookeeper also shared information on how everyone can do their part to help save the environment. Ron was surprised to learn that people actually throw water bottles, food wrappers and even plastic bags into the ocean. The sea animals could choke on the plastic bags or get caught in them. At the end of the show, the audience clapped their hands loudly as the sea lions waved and bowed.

Before heading to the snake enclosure, the family went for a quick snack at the food court.
