Section E: Reading Comprehension (10 marks)
Read the passage carefully and answer questions 21 - 29.

Danny had a problem. He liked to play hide-and-seek, hopscotch and marbles, but could not find anyone to play with him. The reason was that he was not a good sport. He wanted to win all the time. If he found out that he was going to lose a game, he would try to cheat or break the rules of the game.

One day, Danny and his friend, Alex, were having a game called draughts. Alex was winning. Danny did not like it, so, when his friend was looking elsewhere, he quickly put back on the board some of the black pieces his friend had captured. When Alex found out that Danny was not playing fair, he was very angry and broke off the game.

On another occasion, Danny lost to a boy in a game of marbles. Angrily, he snatched the winner's marbles and threw them into the drain. What a sore loser he was!

These days, Danny often sat alone and watched other children play. His mother advised him to change but he was just too stubborn to do so.

For questions 21 – 22, tick ( ) your chosen answer. [2]

21. Danny was not popular with the other children when playing games because he _____.

	was not good at sports
	wanted to win at all cost complained about losing too often
