Comprehension 1 (8 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

One afternoon, after school, Gita felt disappointed. She did not qualify for the finals of the Track and Field competition. Her best friend, Sumei, tried to comfort her but she could not hide her frustration. Gita shouted at Sumei to go away before storming off. Sumei was shocked and stood rooted to the ground.

As Gita walked home, the sky grew darker. Soon, raindrops began to fall. As she did not have an umbrella, she quickly ran to the nearest bus stop to find shelter. At the bus stop, Gita saw Madam Lim, her 60-year-old neighbour. Madam Lim looked at Gita and asked why she looked upset. Gita hesitated for a moment before telling her what had happened earlier.

"Sumei must be feeling sad. You need to patch things up with her, Gita. You'll feel better when you do that," said Madam Lim.

Gita thought about the wise lady's words. Just then, she looked up to the sky. The rain had stopped and the sun was shining. A beautiful rainbow appeared. Gita realised that just like the rain, her sadness would pass. Everything would be fine again. Gita felt better and smiled.

After thanking Madam Lim profusely, Gita walked home anxiously. She wanted to call Sumei and apologise. She hoped that Sumei would forgive her for not appreciating her kindness.

Comprehension 2 (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Madam Salmah runs a vegetable stall at Jalan Ah Hoot Wet Market. Her husband helps out at the stall on weekends as he works at a post office on weekdays. Her children, Aziz and Amina, help her when they do not have school. Madam Salmah is very hardworking and never grumbles although she feels tired running the stall alone most of the time.

She starts the day as early as 4.00 am. She goes to her stall to clean the shelves. At 5.00 am, Mr Ong, her vegetable supplier, delivers fresh vegetables in crates to her stall. Madam Salmah then starts unpacking the vegetables carefully from the crates. After she arranges them neatly on the shelves, she sweeps the floor. Sometimes, the vegetables are delivered late. Mr Ong calls Madam Salmah whenever this happens. She appreciates his thoughtfulness.

During the weekends and school holidays, Aziz and Amina go to the stall to help their mother. Amina sorts the vegetables and removes those that are no longer fresh. Aziz loves arranging the vegetables neatly in small baskets. He also enjoys talking to the customers. They find him adorable as he greets them and asks them politely to buy their vegetables Amina is quiet but hardworking. She enjoys packing vegetables and handing them to the customers. Sometimes, they do not have enough money to pay for the vegetables. Madam Salmah usually tells her children to give them a discount. She reminds Aziz and Amina to be kind.

Madam Salmah's regular customers like her excellent service. She never fails to smile at them. She also likes sharing cooking tips with them. That is why they always return to buy vegetables from her.
